20. A certification of Ownership may be issued to an individual, to husband and wife as tenants by the entirety, or as joint tenants.
21. A vested right of interment may be released by waiver, terminated upon the interment elsewhere of the remains of the person in whom vested, or in the case of a spouse by divorce, unless it is otherwise provided in the divorce decree. No vested right of interment gives the right to be interred where any deceased person having a prior vested right of interment has been interred, nor does it give the right to have the remains of more than one deceased person interred in a single interment space in violation of these rules and regulations.
22. When an interment of the owner or a member of his family has been made in a plot, thereafter unless Crestwood is otherwise directed in writing by the owner, the plots shall be held as the family plot of the owner and no rights of interment therein may be transferred to non-family members unless such a disposition was made by the owner in a will by a specific devise, or by a written declaration filed and recorded prior to his death in the office of Crestwood.  - (2) One right of interment may be used by the owner's surviving spouse, if

- any, who has vested right of interment in it;
- (3) If any rights of interment are remaining, the parents and children of the deceased owner, in order of death, may be interred without the consent of any other person claiming any interest in the right;
 - (4) If no parent or child survives, the right of interment goes in order of death,
 - (a) to the spouse of any child of the record owner, and in order of death,
 - (b) to the next heirs at law of the owner or the spouse of any heir at law.
23. Subject to these Rules and Regulations and the Laws of Michigan, interment rights are freely transferable. Upon the receipt of written instructions or a certified copy of a will containing specific devise from the deceased owner of record, Crestwood shall, however, restrict interments to the persons designated in the authorizations or devise. No transfer of a family burial estate will be accepted by Crestwood after interment of the original owner or owners, except for the interment of family members, or others as designated in writing or by a will by the owner or by court order.
24. If an owner of record dies without providing a written declaration or a specific devise by will, any unused rights of interment descend to the heirs at law of the owner subject to the rights of interment of the descendant and his or her surviving spouse.
25. Upon the death of a joint tenant, the title to any lot held in joint tenancy immediately vests in the survivors, subject to the vested rights of interment of the remains of the deceased joint tenant.
26. When there are multiple owners of rights of interment, they may designate one or more persons to represent their interests by filing written notice with Crestwood. In the absence of such designation or a written notice objection at the time of interment, Crestwood may permit an interment upon the request or direction of any co-owner without liability.
27. Crestwood is authorized to permit the use of an unused interment right by a person entitled to its use if it receives an affidavit by a person having knowledge of the facts setting forth: (1) the fact of the death of the owner and the name of the person or persons entitled to the use of the right of interment; or (2) the fact of the death of one joint tenant, proof of the identity of the surviving joint tenants or their successors in interest, names in the certificate of ownership and the written direction of the surviving joint tenants or their successors in interest.
28. No transfer or assignment of any right of interment, or interest therein shall be valid until accepted in writing by Crestwood on Crestwood's form and records in the books of Crestwood. Crestwood may also refuse to consent to a transfer or to an assignment as long as there is outstanding any portion of the purchase price of the deposit required to be made to Crestwood's care fund due from the record owner.

29. Crestwood may fix a charge for all transfers of ownership. No transfer of ownership shall be complete or effective until all charges are paid. No transfer of a family burial estate will be accepted by Crestwood after interment of the original owner or owners, except for the interment of family members, or others as designated in writing or by a will by the owner or by court order.

IV. INTERMENTS

30. No interment shall take place without an authorization, order or permit signed by the person or persons authorized by law and/or by the lot owner or owners. The same shall designate the location of the lot to be used. Crestwood shall be entitled to rely on the accuracy of the information set forth in such permit, and shall not be liable for any error therein contained, or as to the identity of the person whose remains are to be interred.
31. Orders for interment may, at the option of Crestwood be received by telephone, for the lot owners or assignment on record at the Cemetery office. If other than the lot owner or their assigns, and "Authority to Inter" form furnished by the Cemetery or a notarized statement signed by the lot owner giving authorization to inter must be delivered to the Cemetery prior to the time of actual interment. 36. Only one interment shall be permitted in each grave or crypt, except in the case of mother and an infant child or of twin children under ten years of age buried at the same time, but two or more interments of cremated remains or the interment of an adult and one interment of cremated remains may be allowed together.
37. Grave location must be approved by the owner or his authorized representative in writing on the Cemetery Interment Permit. This permit shall be kept as part of the Cemetery permanent records.
38. The use of an outside burial container is required for all burials. All burial vaults or other containers must be constructed of concrete or steel or of other composition approved by Crestwood. Wood boxes are not permitted. The requirement of such a container is not solely for purposes of protection from the environment, but to insure against cave-in, so that the Cemetery ground shall remain safe for maintenance and ingress and egress.

48. Any planting, decoration or other object(s) placed on or above a grave or lot shall be removed, when in the judgement of management such action is warranted and in the best interest of the Cemetery.
49. Nothing hereinabove contained shall be deemed to prohibit care of a grave by the owner or his duly authorized representatives. All rubbish made by such owners or other representatives must be removed by them to such places of deposit as may be provided for this purpose immediately after completion of their work and before leaving the Cemetery. In the event this Rule is not strictly complied with, Crestwood may, upon the giving of five days' written notice by regular or certified mail to the owner at his last known address, remove such rubbish at the expense of the owner.

If in the opinion of Crestwood any work or material furnished shall be improper, it may reflect the same; and if the work has already been done or the said material been delivered on the lot, Crestwood may enter thereon and remove the same therefrom or, if in its opinion the same may be put in proper order at the expense of the owner of the lot. Crestwood may fix and collect from an outside contractor a reasonable charge for the use of the Cemetery roads and facilities.
